What are the Gay Games?

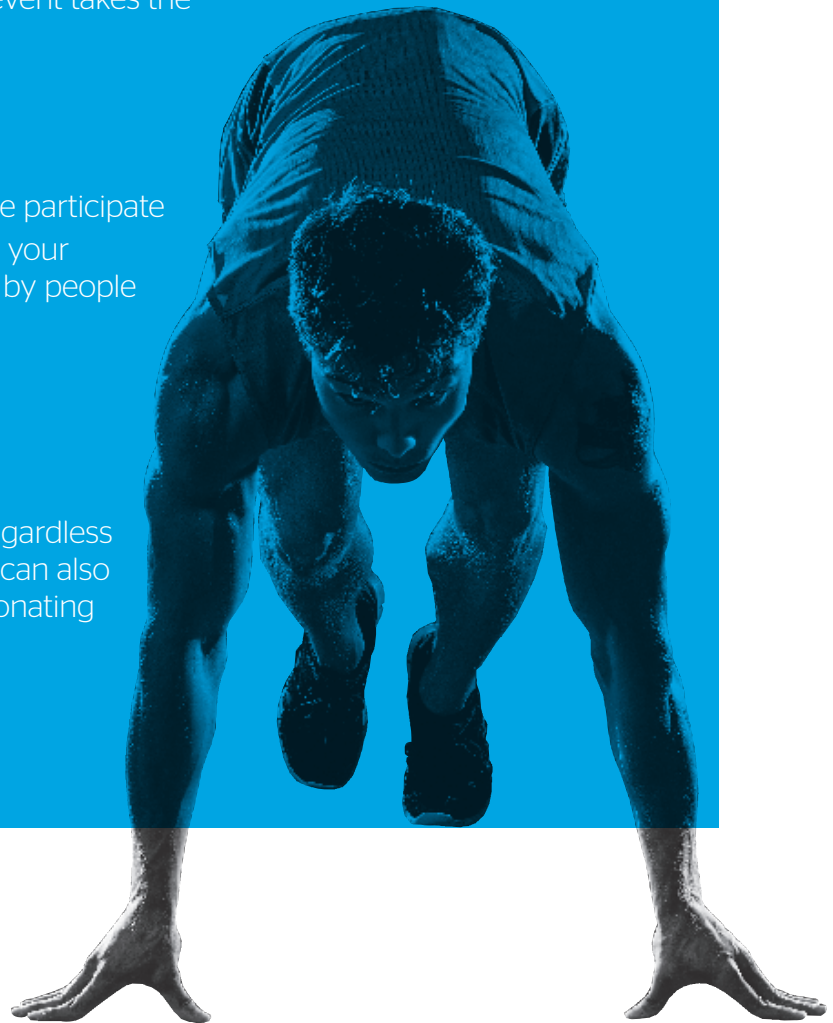

Every four years since the first Gay Games in 1982, athletes, artists and musicians gather to take part in sporting and cultural events. Cleveland+Akron is hosting the 2014 Gay Games presented by the Cleveland Foundation. Participating in and presenting a large-scale, week-long event takes the community coming together as one.

Not gay?

You won't be alone. Plenty of straight people participate and volunteer at the Gay Games. Whatever your orientation or gender, you'll be surrounded by people who share your love of the game and of Cleveland+Akron.

Not good enough?

Anyone 18 years or older can participate, regardless of skill level. Just register and you're in. You can also support the Gay Games by volunteering, donating and spreading the word.

Adopt an Event

The Games are coming to Cleveland+Akron from 9-16 August 2014. Volunteers are integral to making the 2014 Gay Games presented by the Cleveland Foundation a huge success. Producing more than 35 sports and culture events requires 4,000 volunteers. Companies, non profits, social organizations and college groups are invited to organize a volunteer team and adopt a sport or an event for the 2014 Gay Games.

Adopt-an-Event Opportunities

Benefits

Bring your organization together for a great team-building experience to support this spectacular event. Don't miss this opportunity to be a part of Cleveland+Akron's history. Sports and events will not be available for long, reserve your event today!

Get Involved

To adopt your event, contact Chelsea Kertes, Volunteer Coordinator, at ckertes@gg9cle.com. Share your organization's special access code with prospective volunteers so they can join your team when they register to volunteer online. As you recruit volunteers, the 2014 Gay Games will work with you to plan how many volunteers are needed and assist you with digital and print marketing materials for distribution within your organization.
